

The Unified Model

Information is stored in an integrated database where everything is connected for complete dynamic traceability

The circles represent Objects within the Cockpit database . All traceability is inherently maintained “behind the scenes”, but it is managed, manipulated, and reported through Documents and management reports in the User Interface.

See it in Action!

Request an initial demo to start a 30-day trial project for free!

Email sales@cognition.us to get started!

